TWELVE THOUSAND
ARE QUARANTINED;
SMALLPOX SPREADS

(International News Service)

CHICAGO, Dec. 31.—Twelve thousand people in East Chicago, Ind., adjoining the southern limits of Chicago, are quarantined because of an epidemic of smallpox, and board of health authorities are considering the quarantine of all of East Chicago and Hammond, Ind. Should a general quarantine go into effect many of the steel plants would be forced to shut down.

Nearly 100 cases were reported today in East Chicago and Hammond.
The entire south half of East Chicago is under quarantine. Residents are not allowed to go beyond prescribed boundaries. Tradersmen are permitted to enter the district only on special permits and must leave all merchandise on doorsteps without entering houses. Street cars make no stops within the quarantined districts and theaters and schools are closed.

The rapid spread of the epidemic is attributed to the incorrect diagnosis of a case of chicken pox.

PEOPLE OF ALABAMA TO SAVE THE LIVES OF 10,000 CHILDREN

State-Wide Appeal is Decided Upon by Committeemen

The state-wide appeal for funds to save the lives of millions of starving children in Europe will open Sunday, January 9, and close Sunday, January 16. This was decided at a meeting of committeemen from all sections of Alabama, called in Birmingham yesterday afternoon by Erskine Ramsey, chairman of the Alabama division of the European Relief Council.

The appeal will be for a minimum of $100,000 to save the lives of 10,000 children who otherwise must die between now and next harvest time. All the committee members present pledged themselves to complete organizations in every community in order that the appeal may reach every Alaba-mian and that Alabama citizens may learn that unless purse strings are loosened, death's harvest among the innocents of Europe will be heavy.

Practically every religious, fraternal and civic organization in Alabama will co-operate in this work and leaders in the movement feel confident that much more than the minimum sum asked will be forthcoming from generous-hearted Alabamians within the time designated for the active campaign of the appeal.

vidual line of cars.

LABOR WARNED TO
"STAND FIRM" BY
SAMUEL GOMPERS

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 31.—Labor faces a year of "solemn portent," Samuel Gompers declared today, discussing the outlook for the year, "but," warned the veteran head of the American Federation of Labor, "let it be repeated upon every occasion to those who seek to go backward, to those who seek reduction of wages or an-tagonism to the union, to those who seek by whatever means to restore the weakening grip of autocracy in industry, there must be and there will be every possible legitimate opposition on the part of labor."

To the workers, he issued this New Year's message: "In this hour give hope to humanity, give strength to the cause of freedom. Grit your teeth and organize. Labor, organized, is invincible. Be invincible. In defense of liberty and justice and freedom and democracy, be unbeatable.
At this hour of historic progress, when the enemies seek to gather for another desperate effort against progress, should working people submit?
A thousand times no."

NOTE OF OPTIMISM
EXPRESSED AT THE
FINAL MEETING OF
YEAR AT CHAMBER

No Reason for the Business Men to be "Panicky," Speakers Say

COMMITTEE IS NAMED
TO MAKE NOMINATIONS

Officers for 1920 Will be Elected by Chamber of Commerce
Tuesday

The final meeting for 1920 of the Albany Chamber of Commerce held last night in the rooms of the chamber was featured by a number of very good speeches, all of which breathed a spirit of determination and optimism.

"The merchants and other business men of Albany have no cause to go around with long faces," declared Dr.
W. P. Wilks in his usually convincing manner.

"We have no panic. We are only in a testing time as it was with the business men of Birmingham, who 25 years ago faced a depression in that city, but they went on to big things and reaped great fortunes—so it will be here and throughout all North Alabama.

"The men who refuse to let up in their effort and enterprise are sure to win, and that right quickly, for the present depression is only temporary." Dr.
Wilks made a hit with his hearers when he contended that it was the duty of the Chamber of Commerce to see to it that this section of the state has its just quota of representatives in the legislative halls at Montgomery.

"The Black Belt of the state has about four representatives to our one. And they will keep things that way unless we get busy. We have far out-stripped South Alabama in population, wealth and in school population and in voting strength, so while the whole 4000 voting men of Morgan county, to say nothing of the women voters, have only a half representation in the state Senate, down in the lower counties as few as 800 voters have a whole senator."

Following Dr. Wilks' address, A. A.
Hardage related how farmers who were needing credit would appreciate a helping hand from the business men of Albany, and advised that every farmer in the county be given generous consideration. J. P. Matlock, F.
A. Bloodworth, C. P. McDaniel, W. W.
Rahn, H. M. Priest, Dr. A. M. Roan and a number of others spoke along the same lines.

Even With World
President Tidwell, after calling the house to order, made a short address in which he said that the chamber closed the year "even with the world," provided the membership fees now due were paid within the next few days.

Mr. Tidwell called attention to the fact that when the present board of directors took charge they faced a deficit of something over $1100 which was left over by the old board, all of which has been paid by the new board, that the booster campaigns had been put on and carried to very successful conclusions without a single assessment, that the campaign for the good roads bond issue had been successfully carried out, that much matter had been put before the world showing what the city of Albany has to offer as inducements to investors and home-seekers.

Mr. Tidwell declared that for no other reason the organization should be kept together, as the chamber was under obligation to the voters of the county to see that the roads called for in the bond issue recently authorized was built according to specifications.
In this statement he was warmly seconded by Secretary-Manager McDaniel.

McDaniel Is Praised
It came as a surprise to many members who had not seen in the afternoon paper the account of Mr. McDaniel's midnight tonight.

Gotham Bankers
Voice a Cheering
Message For 1921

(Copyright by the I. N. S.) NEW YORK, Dec. 31.—This is the 1921 business outlook as seen by prominent New York bankers.

"The turn of the tide in declining prices and liquidation is very near. The present reductions have extended throughout the world. We should face the present with courage and the future with confidence"—Charles Sabin, president of the Guarantee Trust company.

"Employees, wage earners and merchants should cooperate to reduce the price of other goods to correspond with the fall in farm products. If all wages and prices come down together, nobody will be worse off. This is the secret of getting industry started again."—Charles E. Roberts, first vice president of the National City Bank.

"Manufacturers, wholesalers and jobbers are past the peak of deflation. There are thousands of workers already idle. Until all realize the necessity of restoring pre-war levels, production will be retarded. Our deflation will be a great help toward meeting international trade competition."—L. J. Coffman, president of the Chatham and Phoenix National Bank.

"The situation is yet far from normal, but credit conditions should be more satisfactory during 1921 than in 1920."— James S. Alexander, president of the National Bank of Commerce.

LICENSE SCHEDULE
FOR DECATUR MADE
SAME FOR THE YEAR

The license schedule in Decatur will remain the same in 1921 as it was in 1920, under a decision reached by the city council at its regular meeting in the city hall last night. The old schedule was readopted for the coming year without change.

Adoption of the license schedule was the principal order of business coming before the board. A representative of the Morgan County health department appeared in the interest of the work now being done by the unit to enforce connection of all property with sanitary sewers or the installation of sanitary surface toilets. The cooperation of the municipality was promised the health department and the question of purchase, by the city, of a number of sanitary toilets for sale at cost to citizens was taken under advisement.

the extra gold prize will be won. Great strides will be made this week in credit full possible quota of subscriptions is concerned, notwithstanding the fact that those who are working have met

M'GREGOR NAMED
POST COMMANDER
AMERICAN LEGION

L. E. McGregor last night was named post commander of Morgan County Post, American Legion, to succeed Captain Raymond R. Brown. The terms of all post officials expire with the end of each calendar year. Other officers elected at last night's meeting are: Neal Speake, vice-commander; Joseph M. Pettey, adjutant; William Mosley, post finance officer; George Mainard, historian. The office of chaplain will be filled at a later date.

In addition to the election of officers the post at its meeting last night in the Decatur city hall discussed a number of other questions relating to the work of the approaching year.

PRELIMINARY TRIAL

The preliminary trial of eight men, held in Limestone county in connecwas postponed yesterday by Judge Clem, of the inferior court, until next Thursday. The grand jury will meet next Tuesday to investigate the case.

FINAL DEMAND FOR HUN DISARMAMENT
MADE BY BRITAIN;
SITUATION DARKENS

Berlin Representative Called In to Conference by British Foreign Secretary

FRANCE EXPECTED TO SEND NOTE TO ALLIES

Will be Asked for Their Suggestion on the Steps to be Taken

(International News Service)
LONDON, Dec. 31.—Great Britain's final demand for German disarmament was made today. It was presented to Herr St. Hamer, the German ambassador. He was summoned to the foreign office, where formal communication was made by Earl Curzon, the foreign secretary. There have been developments over the past 24 hours indicating a serious situation is growing up over German disarmament.

The British ambassador to Germany was recalled for consultation and presented a long report to the cabinet on the disarmament and indemnity questions. It was reported in Berlin that the Allies may occupy the Ruhr district and Bavaria if Germany does not live up to the letter of the Spa disarmant agreement.

REPORT GIVEN

(International News Service)
PARIS, Dec. 31.—Marshal Foch today presented a report to Premier Leygues on German disarmament. It is understood, however, that no recommendations were made. France is expected to send a note to the other Allies at once, asking what measures they suggest. The Allies charge that Germany has not lived up to the terms of the Spa agreement on disarmament.

FINANCIAL MATTERS
NOW ARE OCCUPYING
HARDING'S INTEREST

(International News Service)

MARION, O., Dec. 31.—Expected tightening of the money market of America after January 1, with consequent disorganization of business and employment conditions, was the subject of discussion at Senator Harding's conference today. Will H. Hays, chairman of the Republican national committee, remained in Marion overnight to outline further his report on business conditions throughout the country. While he declared today he is firm in the belief that the period of greatest financial danger was past, Mr. Hays was frankly expectant of money stringency throughout January and February.

Senator Knox, before his departure, made it evident that important as is the accomplishment of a new association of nations, proposals for its formation may well await the settlement of pressing domestic problems, affecting the farmers, stock growers and business men of the country. Passage of the resolution, declaring a state of peace with attendant repeal of wartime legislation, would remove pressing need for inauguration of such an association of nations, Senator Knox said.

THE SALVATION ARMY SLOGAN

In the busy rush of American life, it has become almost an indiosyncrasy of our nation to add another kick or two to anyone who appears to be slipping from one plane of life to a lower one. There seems to be little room in our schemes of things for the man who is not succeeding in raising himself to a higher position, morally or financially. We give too little thought to those who try and do not succeed. Success is the keynote of our existence.

Even so often, however, we are reminded, principally by the little Salvation Army posters, "a man may be down, but he's never out," but it remained for The American Legion Weekly to furnish one of the most striking examples of the Army's slogan in an editorial in a current issue.

The Weekly says:
When Abraham Lincoln was a young man he ran for the Legislature in Illinois, and was seventeen years paying his debts.

He was engaged to a beautiful young woman—she died.

Entering politics again, he ran for Congress, and was again defeated.

He then tried to get an appointment in the United States Land Office, but failed. He became a candidate for the United States Senate, and was badly beaten. He ran for vice-president and was once more defeated.

When you think of your hard luck, think of Lincoln.

What is true of Lincoln also is true of many other persons who have risen above environment and adverse circumstances to places of honor. The ability to "come back" is one of the outstanding characteristics of the majority of the world's really big men. Few have attained their goals without the necessity of overcoming obstacles. There appears to be a quality in adversity which makes men better for having suffered.

PUBLICITY PLVS

"The Birmingham Age-Herald says: 'The young woman charged with murdering Jake Hamon is blessed with enough good looks to impress a jury. Therefore, her lawyers talk like men who have already won their case.' No one every attained as much publicity on as little capital. The press agent in this case is the wonder of the world," declares The Florida Times. Anon The Daily begs to disagree with The Times-Union. The Shepard case in Georgia was about the most uninteresting one that ever burdened newspaper wires. The woman wasn't even good to look upon evidently. Her pictures were not plentiful, notwithstanding the fact that thousands of words were poured over the wires about the case.

METEORIC CAREER OF A FAMOUS PLAYWRIGHT

Eugene Walter leaped from obscurity to the dizzy pinnacle of success as a playwright, married one of the most beautiful stars on the American stage, whom he lost in the divorce court, and is now a bankrupt. He places his liabilities at $7,479 and his assets at $100.

Even in the hectic life of New York the career of Mr. Walter is one to arrest attention. When thousands of theatergoers were packing playhouses to see "The Easiest Way" and "Paid in Full," and money was rolling in on their author in a flood of royalties, he was the envy of hundreds of struggling newspaper men who aspired to follow in his footsteps.

Any number of reasons may explain the eclipse of a playwright who showed great promise and must have earned a considerable fortune, all of which has apparently been swept away. Possibly the cause lies not far removed from the environment in which successful people find themselves in New York, particularly if they happen to be associated with the stage. Another explanation, and perhaps the real one, is the list of plays produced after Mr. Walter became famous, probably none of which was as successful in a financial way as his best known dramas.—Birmingham Age Herald.

Unless new people live in the coming year, it will be the same old year over again.

Venezelos may be in bad, but he is not as deep in bad as the Greeks who deposed him.

Too many seem to have turned their lives over to the law of gravitation.

There will be more Penzils flourishing in future generations, unless greed is beheaded, and the get rich quick fools die before birth.

Some truths have been proven, some have been experienced, and some have been copied from the other fellow.

If European home seekers should get wind of the foul smelling liquor that is being "home brewed" and boot legged around in America, there will be no need of a law to stop "the flood of immigration."

Note of Optimism Expressed at the resignation as secretary of the chamber, that he was determined to take employment elsewhere as commercial secretary.

It was announced that he would leave today for Camden, South Carolina, where he goes to take up his duties as secretary of the Camden and Kershaw County Chamber of Commerce. Every speaker at the meeting in the course of his remarks took occasion to express regret at the action of Mr. McDaniel, but wished for him much success in his new connection. Were not "Mack's" face at all times the color of a healthy blush, he would have been accused of blushing while the membership, from President Tidwell down to the occasional attenders of the board, expressed heart-felt appreciation for his untiring and successful efforts for the last year.

An effort was made to get Mr. McDaniel to reconsider his decision to resign, but without avail.

Mr. McDaniel stated that he had completed all arrangements to go, and that while he appreciated Albany and her good people, he could not reconsider at this time.

Nominating Committee

Following the address of Mr. Tidwell and the words of appreciation for the faithful services of Mr. McDaniel, on motion of A. A. Hardage, a committee was appointed to make nominations for the officers to head the organization for next year.

After some discussion it was decided that this committee confer and make its recommendation at a special membership meeting to be held Tuesday night, January 4, at 7:30 o'clock. The committee was composed of the following gentlemen: W. M. Chennault, chairman; B. B. Pickens, and Dr. W. P. Wilks. The following committee was appointed to make arrangements for the meeting: W. W. Rahm, chairman; E. C. Nix, and B. B. Pickens. The committee was directed to make full arrangements for a social-smoker to be given prior to the election of officers.

At the request of Treasurer J. P. Matlock, the following committee was appointed to audit his books: F. A. Bloodworth and T. A. Bowles.

A cordial invitation to the public to meet with the congregation was extended.

Local Applications Would Not Benefit Bad Case of Eczema. Re-Cu-Ma Working Internally Through the Blood, Showed Immediate Healing Effects.

Mr. P. H. Johnson, of the well-known furniture house of Johnson & Johnson, Main street, South Boston, Virginia, had through bad blood contracted a painful case of Eczema in his foot. "Outward applications did not seem to bring me relief," says Mr. Johnson, "and the foot was causing me much pain. Now, however, I feel better and the eczema in my foot is so much improved that I no longer have to use medicines. One-half bottle of Re-Cu-Ma was all that was needed to do this good work. It certainly did me much good and I can heartily recommend it."

Re-Cu-Ma is sold in Albany by the Thompson Drug Store and by good druggists everywhere. It is everywhere sold with the understanding that if at the end of four days you do not show a material improvement you may take the bottle of Re-Cu-Ma back to the drug store and get every cent you paid for it. You see you have everything to gain and nothing to lose.

If Re-Cu-Ma helps you, you receive priceless benefits. If it doesn't help you the trial has cost you nothing. Get a bottle of Re-Cu-Ma today. Accept our fair proposition. For sale by Thompson's Drug Store in Albany; Beason-Cobb Drug Co. in Decatur, and all good drug stores.—Adv.

subscription with 12,500 votes or credits, 25,000 votes will be allowed. The same principle will be applied to all business turned in during the week.

Extra Prize

The contestant turning in the greatest amount in subscriptions will be given $100 extra as their reward for special work put forth during this period. So, a contestant has a two-fold reason for doubling his or her energy now, the extra gold prize and double votes for the business secured. One of the ladies whose name is among the leaders in the list said that she intended to work just as though the campaign actually closed next Saturday night, as she realized that those who were most successful in this period would doubtless win the best prizes in the end. This is a sane line of reasoning indeed as subscriptions will be more plentiful now than after this week.

TRADE RELATIONS BETWEEN BRITAIN AND RUSSIA INTACT

(International News Service)

MOSCOW (by wireless to Berlin), Dec. 31.—Although the Soviet government has recalled Leonid Krassin, the Russian commercial envoy in London, negotiations for the opening of trade relations between Russia and Great Britain have not been completely broken off, it was announced today. M. Krassin is to return to Moscow at once. Officials of the Bolshevik government declared that Russia was "tired of dickerings without getting anywhere," although it still adhered to the Russo-British agreement of July 7.

Looking Forward to the New Year

We, the people of Decatur and Albany, have much for which to be thankful at this particular time. Whether through natural causes or through special dispensation, God has blessed us. This could be better appreciated if all could understand what other towns are experiencing. While our towns are specially favored, yet, every man and woman in them owes it as a duty to our community to lend every effort possible to a policy that will further the advancement of our towns by trading at home and meeting our duties with a smile and a glad heart. We need no disgruntels, nor men-crying babies, but men and women with courage, nerve and strong hearts, who can push aside obstacles and meet their duties as a pleasure to perform. With this mental attitude for a fulcrum, and determination for a lever, we will lift ourselves out of a depression and make the year 1921—one of pleasure and prosperity.

The year 1920 is now at a close, and while it is passing out it is letting in conditions that have proven a surprise and a disappointment to many.

Speaking from a personal experience, the year has been fairly satisfactory to us. We have had a fair volume of business, for which I desire to express to the public my sincere gratitude and I trust and hope to merit in the coming year that confidence from the public that we have so uniformly enjoyed in the past. Some of our business policies have not met with the full approval of everyone at all times. We could not hope for that.

Early in the year we saw that we could see the development of business conditions that would produce a violent change from the conditions prevailing for the past three years, and at once we began shaping our affairs to meet them. We recognized that a deflation of prices was inevitable, and that the public was paying too dearly for merchandise. We at once began to sacrifice our profits, and did our humble best to reduce the cost of living. Just how much we contributed to this end, our patrons know. Our methods were different to some. We did not announce fictitious values to the people to excite their interest in buying, but when merchandise was offered over the counter, we gave better values than were usually offered—quality considered—and in every instance we endeavored to give full value for the price paid, and so long as we are in business it shall be our purpose to steadfastly adhere to this policy.

FROM THE INSIDE OUT

Local Applications Would Not Benefit Bad Case of Eczema. Re-Cu-Ma Working Internally Through the Blood, Showed Immediate Healing Effects.

Mr. P. H. Johnson, of the well-known furniture house of Johnson & Johnson, Main street, South Boston, Virginia, had through bad blood contracted a painful case of Eczema in his foot. "Outward applications did not seem to bring me relief," says Mr. Johnson, "and the foot was causing me much pain. Now, however, I feel better and the eczema in my foot is so much improved that I no longer have to use medicines. One-half bottle of Re-Cu-Ma was all that was needed to do this good work. It certainly did me much good and I can heartily recommend it."

Re-Cu-Ma is sold in Albany by the Thompson Drug Store and by good druggists everywhere. It is everywhere sold with the understanding that if at the end of four days you do not show a material improvement you may take the bottle of Re-Cu-Ma back to the drug store and get every cent you paid for it. You see you have everything to gain and nothing to lose.

If Re-Cu-Ma helps you, you receive priceless benefits. If it doesn't help you the trial has cost you nothing. Get a bottle of Re-Cu-Ma today. Accept our fair proposition. For sale by Thompson's Drug Store in Albany; Beason-Cobb Drug Co. in Decatur, and all good drug stores.—Adv.

Worn Down, Out of Heart

Georgia Lady, Worn-out and Tired, Tells How She Was Helped by Ziron Iron Tonic.

THE personal experience of Mrs. Nannie Phillips, of Powder Springs, Ga., is printed below in her own words:

"I was in a worn-out condition. My stomach was out of order. I didn't sleep well. I was tired all the time. I couldn't half eat, and didn't rest well at night."

"I would get out of heart and blue. I would feel like I was going to be down in bed. Yet I kept dragging around."

"We heard of Ziron, and from what I read, I was sure it wouldn't hurt me, if it didn't help me. But after taking it, I found it really helped me, and I sent back for more. I ate better, felt much stronger. I am sure Ziron is a splendid tonic."

Many people, who are worn down and disheartened, due to stomach disorders and nervous ills, find relief by toning up their blood with Ziron Iron Tonic.

Tell your druggist you want to try Ziron on our money-back guarantee.

MILLIONS OF SEALS UNACCOUNTED FOR

THOUSANDS TO WHOM SEALS WERE SENT HAVE NOT REMITTED

BIRMINGHAM, Dec. 31.—(Special) Approximately twenty millions of the little red Christmas Seals were distributed to the people of Alabama during December, over one-half of them by mail.

Checks and greenbacks have been sent to the Alabama Tuberculosis Association in payment for Christmas Seals from every nook and corner of Alabama. Most of these checks are for $2 each, as 200 seals were enclosed in each letter.

But thousands of persons who have received the seals have not yet sent their checks nor returned the seals, and the Tuberculosis Association is asking that everyone who received the seals either send in payment for them or return the seals in order that the seal sale accounts for 1920 may be closed.

Unless a very large proportion of the number who yet have seals pay for them, the tuberculosis work in the state will be sadly handicapped during 1921, but the officers of the state association feel sure of the backing of the people in the vital and important work they are doing to stamp out this dread disease.

COTTON MARKET'S DROP SHORT LIVED

LISTS RECOVER STRENGTH ON OPENING AFTER VERY POOR START

(International News Service) NEW YORK, Dec. 31.—After opening rather easy today at a decline from 10 to 20 points because of weak cables, selling by Wall street and local liquidation, the cotton market soon recovered and in the case of January sold 10 points over last night's close, due to covering orders and buying by spot houses. Liverpool also was a fair buyer of the near positions. As far as could be learned no notices were issued this morning. The market will be closed at noon today and no transfer of notices can be made after that hour.

PEACE YEAR NOT SO PEACEFUL AS FIGURES CHECKED

(International News Service) NEW YORK, Dec. 31.—The world hailed 1920 as "peace year," but the familiar sound of battle rolled unceasingly through many parts of Europe and Asia. All of the big powers with the notable exception of the United States and Russia had signed treaties or joined the League of Nations, but the whole year was marked by wars, revolutions and attempted military coups. Fighting was continuous in Russia and Turkey. Civil war broke out in China. Germany had a narrow escape from civil war when a small clique of German militarists under von Kapp attempted to seize the Berlin government on March 13. Violent strife has raged and continues to rage in Ireland. The year ends with the virtual collapse of the Utopian movement for universal disarmament. The United States is maintaining nearly a quarter of a million men under arms and is executing a naval program that will make her the first sea power in world unless Great Britain enlarges her program. And Japan has served notice upon the League of Nations that she will not disarm so long as the United States continues to increase her land and sea forces.

The biggest war of 1920 was fought between Soviet Russia and Poland. Enraged at the territorial encroachments of Poland and possibly seeing an opportunity to push Bolshevism westward and Soviet massed a great army against the Poles. Fighting broke out in March and soon a terrific struggle was raging over a battle front approximately 500 miles long. The Poles were successful in the initial stage of the fighting, but the Russians rallied, smashed the Polish front and were on the point of taking Warsaw when, with French and British help, the Poles beat off the invaders. After six months of violent fighting peace negotiations were opened at Minsk, but were later transferred to Riga, where they are still in progress.

REVIVAL SERVICES TO END TONIGHT

EVANGELIST PITTMAN MAKES MANY NEW FRIENDS DURING MEETING HERE

The revival meetings at the Jackson Street Church of Christ, which have been in progress for five days, will terminate tonight, when Prof. S. P. Pittman, the evangelist in charge, will preach the last sermon of the series. Professor Pittman came into the work highly recommended, and leaves for his home in Nashville with his reputation fully sustained, and with hosts of new friends. According to J. Pettet Ezell, the minister of the Church of Christ, the baptizing for the revival will be held this afternoon.

Professor Pittman took as his text last night Romans 12:1-2 and dwelt almost entirely on the single word, "beseech," the first word of the text. The minister said that the word had a large application in the life efforts of St. Paul, especially after his conversion to Christ. Before his life was thus revolutionized, Paul, who was then called Saul, was in the habit of commanding and forcing people. The speaker made the point that failure overcame all the efforts of "Saul." He said that the persecutions of the church attempted by Saul only caused the church people to be scattered and therefore gave them greater opportunity to spread the gospel.

As Paul, the Apostle, the former persecutor, no longer tried to force people, but instead entreated them with loving persuasion, the preacher said that at all times people should be approached with entreaty, and with love. In speaking of the people with whom Christian workers had to deal, Professor Pittman said that there were three great classes; first, those who were out and out unbelievers; second, those who had grown cold in the faith; and third, people who were members of other faiths.

It was declared that all these classes should be approached practically the same way, viz: with loving entreaty. It was declared that every man was to be regarded as honest in his beliefs until the opposite was fully demonstrated, and that unless honesty was presupposed in others, it was next to impossible to get them to place confidence in those who sought to help them.

but don't feel well—when you get tired more easily than people your age should—when you can't get up the energy to do the things you know you would enjoy doing, build up your red blood cells with Gude's Pepto-Mangan.

If your blood is weak you cannot be vigorous in body or cheerful in mind.
Pepto-Mangan contains the elements that make rich, healthy blood. And as a result of the increased supply of red blood that Pepto-Mangan creates, the entire system attains the vigor that belongs to every man and woman.

Results from taking Pepto-Mangan show promptly. You feel benefited after a few days and much stronger in a few weeks. If you do not, consult a physician. You may have some deep-seated illness for which a blood tonic such as Pepto-Mangan is not sufficient.

Pepto-Mangan is prepared in two forms, liquid and tablets. They are exactly alike in medicinal value.

Ask your druggist for "Gude's"

HOT, DIZZY FEELING

Atlanta Lady's Uncomfortable and Annoying Condition Relieved,
She Says, by Cardui.

Atlanta, Ga.—Miss Alice Frances Young, of 28 East Alexander Street, this city, says: "After entering womanhood, I suffered so much with womanly weakness. My back ached.
I would have, at certain times, a hot feeling that seemed to go to my head.
Even my shoulders would hurt, and it made me very dizzy and uncomfortable. When the blood would flow to my head—I suppose that was what it was—I would faint and feel so weak.
I couldn't do my work. I had a good position, and this was surely annoying as well as embarrassing. I would usually have to go home and go to bed. I certainly suffered greatly.
I heard of Cardui, and my mother bought it for me. It was the first and only medicine that ever did me any good for this trouble."

Dizziness, headache, sideache, backache, tired-out feeling and other disagreeable symptoms are often signs of womanly troubles. Thousands of women who formerly suffered from these and similar ailments have found Cardui a very valuable remedy.

Cardui is composed only of pure, vegetable ingredients which have long been recognized as of medicinal value in the treatment of many diseases and disorders peculiar to women.

Take Cardui.

New Year's
Greetings

A prosperous New Year is our wish to all and we desire to express our thanks to our customers who have given us their business throughout the past year and we assure you that it is our greatest desire to so please you that you will continue to trade with us. To the share holders, also, we offer our most grateful thanks and we hope each and every one will become a more active worker for the business during the incoming year. We are able to offer better prospects to those who may desire to subscribe for stock this year than we were during the past year, from the fact that a debt of more than $1200.00 was hanging over the business at the close of the year 1919 for fixtures and other liabilities.
Today, at the close of the year 1920, with a collection of 90% of all bills due the business we could pay our total liabilities and show a surplus of $1075.00 in favor of the business with the fixtures and stock on hand as a resource.

The more than 200 satisfied customers and share holders spells—SUCCESS—for our business and we realize that by helping our friends we in turn solicit their help and we are always grateful to those who pay their bills promptly—thus helping us to further help them.

Our motto is: BUSINESS ON A CONSERVATIVE BASIS.
Because we know that "the trade demoralizer"—the man who sells under cost to slash his competitor—is as great a destroyer of sound business and business principles as is the "profiteer."

Yours for business,

A TRAIN OF THOUGHTS FOR SABBATH AND OTHER DAYS

George Washington's prayer for the nation is little known, but it will be more familiar, now, that it has been placed on the beautiful altar of the Washington Memorial chapel at Valley Forge. "Almighty God," petitioned the nation's first President: "We make our earnest prayer that Thou wilt keep the United States in Thy holy protection; that Thou wilt incline the hearts of the citizens to cultivate a spirit of subordination and obedience to government; and entertain a brotherly affection and love for one another and for their fellow-citizens of the United States at large. "And finally that Thou wilt most graciously be pleased to dispose us all to do justice, to love mercy, and to demean ourselves with that charity, humility, and pacific temper in mind which were the characteristics of the Divine Author of our blessed religion and without a humble imitation of whose example in these things we can never hope to be a happy nation. "Grant our supplication, we beseech Thee, through Jesus Christ our Lord, Amen."

You will notice that George Washington asks for the characteristics of the "Divine Author of our blessed religion." And he also asks for "Holy protection." Happiness he does not ask for; neither does the "Divine Author," promise "happiness" in the Bible. He does say "My peace, I leave with you." Would it not be well, rather than to ask for a happy New Year, that we pray for a peaceful New Year—of course not the peace of inaction, or the peace of being let alone and of letting others alone, but "that peace of God, which passeth understanding?" We may decide definitely that such a peace cannot come to us, unless like Washington, we recognize Jesus Christ as the "Divine Author." No disparagement of other religions is necessary; no defense of Christianity is necessary—it needs none, though many of us who profess this blessed religion need defense and apology. We will do well, if for all the days of the New Year, we will take it as our task, our duty, and our blessed privilege to seek to realize that the one supreme thing about the Christian religion, is that its "Divine Author" was a revelation of God Himself. And in passing, it is well to place as facts of first rate importance, the Virgin birth of Christ in Bethlehem, that as a little lad, of twelve years, He made the trip to the Temple at Jerusalem, and that many years later He went into Jerusalem and other cities to proclaim His Mission, and that finally He sealed His words and His deeds, by His glorious death. Christ's coming did not mean just a new expression of great hopes and aspirations, for all ways men, everywhere, have aspired after the highest things. Christ's appearance on earth was God's answer to mankind's longings for "that which is perfect." And of course, as it was God, who put perfection before His creation, it must be God and only God Himself, who was manifested in the perfect Man, Christ, Jesus. You recall how Philip once asked Christ to reveal the Father, and how He replied, wearily and sadly it would seem—"Has thou been so long a time, with Me, Philip, and yet sayest thou, 'show us the Father'? They that have seen Me have seen the Father." We will not have the peace of God this year, if we think of Christ as only a good and great man, who was born, lived and loved, and then died. And the Savior of the world is more than a messenger from the shining courts of heaven, who delivered His message only to have it rejected and He Himself put to death. But He said "Behold, I am alive forever more." We cannot do better than live in that belief this year and every year. And, again we cannot think of the Savior as a kind of minor God, who after His stay on earth went back to heaven to sit by the throne of God. We cannot help but say that in life there is an Infinite Being, and that He Himself came into human form, to satisfy that longing for God, which He Himself had planted in the human breast. Should such a conception, seem too high, ask your self if we can dream higher than God hath power to accomplish? And besides, He says some where in the Bible, where high accomplishment is mentioned—"I will accomplish it." St. Augustine, said that the human soul, would never rest satisfied until it was within the bosom of its Maker. Is such an accomplishment beyond Him, with whom all things are possible? But to apply the practical or acid test: Have Christ's accomplishments since He came to earth warranted the belief that He is very God? Well, in a word, He began with followers numbered by the dozen, today 500,000,000 souls with more or less constancy call Him Lord and Master. Napoleon's prophecy of Christ has come true—how His Kingdom of love would triumph. He came when "might made right", absolutely. But He spoke and lived for the "might of meekness," to use a phrase of Milton. And the meek are inheriting the earth! While the Roman Eagles that defied Christ, are forgotten and despised, His kingdom of ideals is making a strong bid for world domination. Although His followers lack much, they are more loyal to Him than were the Roman soldiers to Caesar or the "old guard" to the Vain Napoleon. It is just this loyalty to Christ, that most of all, holds the key and the promise of the future; absolute loyalty to Him will eventually bring, not every time, just what we would call happiness, but it will bring to you eternal life, "the joy of the Lord" and that peace of God "which passeth all understanding."

GERMANY PAYS IMMENSE SUM TO MAINTAIN AMERICAN ARMY OF OCCUPATION IN FATHERLAND

(International News Service) LONDON, Dec. 31.—It is costing the German government 600,000,000 marks per month to maintain the members of the American Army of Occupation in the Fatherland. This is the estimate made by Herr Haverstein, president of the Reichsbank. He states that today Germany's floating debt is 147,000,000,000 marks, and that it would be increased to 30,000,000,000 more at the end of the year. Of all the allied armies, America's costs the least, for it takes a billion marks a month to support the British Army of Occupation and between four and five billion for the French and Belgian. To meet some of these expenses the Reichsbank has proposed a forced loan of 20,000,000,000 marks. Herr Haverstein declared that owing to the great difference in the exchange rates and to the enhanced cost of production in Germany, German goods in the foreign markets were only fetching a thirtieth of what they did before the war.

"I can thank Mr. O'Brien, a neighbor, for my recovery from severe colic attacks and stomach trouble that nearly forced me to cross the river Jordan. I wish I had the money back I spent for other medicine." POLICE DISCOVER POSSIBLE SOLUTION OF ELWELL DEATH (International News Service) NEW YORK, Dec. 31.—The authorities believe today that they might have in their hands a solution of the murder of Joseph B. Elwell, the most famous crime in New York since the killing of Stanford White by Harry Thaw. The possible solution lies in the case of George L. King, an alleged gunman, who was arrested in connection with the robbery of Harry Fettel in November. King has expressed a willingness to plead guilty to robbery in the first degree, although this might mean a sentence to 40 years. The officials believe that he wants to get into the obscurity of prison as quickly as possible in order to hide something. King was a friend of Elwell's and they were known as fellow-gamblers for high stakes. At the time of Elwell's death, one theory was that he had been killed by a gambling companion in a quarrel over profits.

WE FEEL DEEPLY GRATEFUL

As we come to the close of our twenty-eighth year of service to our friends and patrons in the Tennessee Valley, we feel deeply grateful to all who have entrusted their business to us. As the years go by, due to increased patronage, we find ourselves better prepared to serve our customers, and we have endeavored to keep pace with progress by the addition of modern equipment, with a well trained, efficient staff of officers and assistants, in order that the highest standard type of service may be rendered and this standard maintained. It is but natural that the radical changes and processes of re-adjustment now under way should bring disappointment to all. But as we review the whole year's record, we have much to be thankful for and were never better prepared to meet these changed conditions than now. We think world conditions will soon improve. We believe our own country will soon begin constructive measures to solve its problems. And we have an abiding faith in the enterprise and the ability of our people in Decatur and Albany and of the Tennessee Valley to successfully meet the situation and continue to pursue their course of progress in making this the best section of the State and of the South. Our efforts shall continue to be directed and our resources used to assist our patrons and friends along constructive lines.
